

The Moral Status of Discrimination and its Legal Implications

Jerusalem, 14-16 December 2016

Beit Maersdorf, Mount Scopus Campus, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Wednesday, 14 December

10:00-10:10 Greetings: Michael Karayanni / Dean,
Faculty of Law, Hebrew University of Jerusalem

10:10-11:40 Larry Alexander / University of San Diego
Is Wrongful Discrimination Really Wrong?
Comment:
Re'em Segev / Hebrew University of Jerusalem

12:00-13:30 Meital Pinto / Carmel Academic Center
Why Irrational and Arbitrary Distinctions are Discrimination
Comment:
Rona Dinur / Hebrew University of Jerusalem

15:00-16:30 Richard Arneson / University of California, San Diego
Patriotism as Wrongful Discrimination
Comment:
John Roemer / Yale University

17:00-18:30 Yofi Tirosh / Tel-Aviv University
Dance Clubs and the Challenge of Discrimination's Inescapable Ambiguity
Comment:
Yifat Biton / College of Management

Thursday, 15 December

09:00-10:30 Kasper Lippert-Rasmussen / University of Aarhus
Respect and Discrimination
Comment:
Leora Dahan Katz / Polonsky Academy Fellow,
Van Leer Jerusalem Institute;
Hebrew University of Jerusalem

11:00-12:30 Julie Suk / Yeshiva University
Antidiscrimination Law and the Duty to Integrate
Comment:
Barak Medina / Hebrew University of Jerusalem

13:30-15:00 Elizabeth Emens / Columbia University
Conversion Discrimination
Comment:
Shlomi Segall / Hebrew University of Jerusalem

15:30-17:00 Stefan Gosepath / Freie Universität Berlin
Unjust Inequalities
Comment:
Alon Harel, Hebrew University of Jerusalem

17:30-19:00 Tammy Harel Ben-Shahar / Haifa University
Student Ability and Educational Justice
Comment:
Daniel Statman / Haifa University

Friday, 16 December

09:00-10:30 Joseph Fishkin / University of Texas
When is Discrimination Bad?
Comment:
Ronen Avraham / Tel-Aviv University

11:00-12:30 Deborah Hellman / University of Virginia
The Epistemic Commitments of Antidiscrimination Law
Comment:
David Enoch / Hebrew University of Jerusalem

The event is open to the public.

Pre-registration is required: mchr@savion.huji.ac.il, 02-5881156 | Parking may be available - please check when registering.

Special thanks to the following additional sponsors at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem:

Human Rights under Pressure Doctoral Research Program • Centre for Moral & Political Philosophy • Law & Philosophy Forum
Aharon Barak Center for Interdisciplinary Legal Research • Mizock Chair in Administrative & Criminal Law
Harry & Michael Sacher Institute for Legislative Research and Comparative Law