

Symposium

Is Israel a Multicultural Entrapment?

A Symposium on Michael Karayanni's Multicultural Entrapment:
Religion and State Among the Palestinian-Arabs in Israel
(Cambridge University Press, 2020)

In "The Villa" at the Senate Building And By Zoom

Wednesday, June 30, 2021, 16:30-19:30

Greetings

Netta Barak-Corren

Academic Director, Center for the Study of Multiculturalism and Diversity

Comments

Rawia Aburabia

| The Coloniality of Multicultural Entrapments

Jeff Spinner-Halev

| Multiculturalism and Religion: an Opaque Relationship

Daniel Statman

| Multiculturalism Non-Jewish Religious Courts and the Jewish State

5 minutes break

Raef Zreik

| The persistence of politics: from Jewish state to settlers' movement

Amihai Radzyner

| The Religious Legal Systems in Israel: A few historical and comparative remarks following Michael Karayanni's book

10 minutes break

Michael Karayanni

| A Rejoinder

General discussion with the audience

The Meeting Will Convene on Campus.

If You Cannot Attend In-Person, Register to receive the Zoom link:

<https://forms.gle/ML6bJ6bbXKFhZCWw8>